Yes our Zion roots run 118 years deep.

Zion Presbyterian began serving meals at the Fair in 1904. We became Zion United in 1925 and carried on. In the 30's Jock Shepherd, Jessie Ann Gamble's grandfather, installed stoves in the Skating Rink where they served Breakfast, Lunch, Afternoon Tea and Dinner.

Now in 2022 we have our Concession Trailer.

The sign up sheets for shifts 9-1, 1-5, 5-9, and Close-up Crew 8-10 will be in Enderby to sign after the service July 31st and posted in the hall after the service at Zion August 7th.

Entry passes will be provided and may be picked up at Zion Church Hall from Suzanne Skinner starting August 28th.

Please fill in shifts where you are able to continue Zion's participation at the I.P.E. Armstrong Fair.

Thanks so much,

Eleanor Henn and Eleanor Kiefer

Everyone who took the 'food safe course'

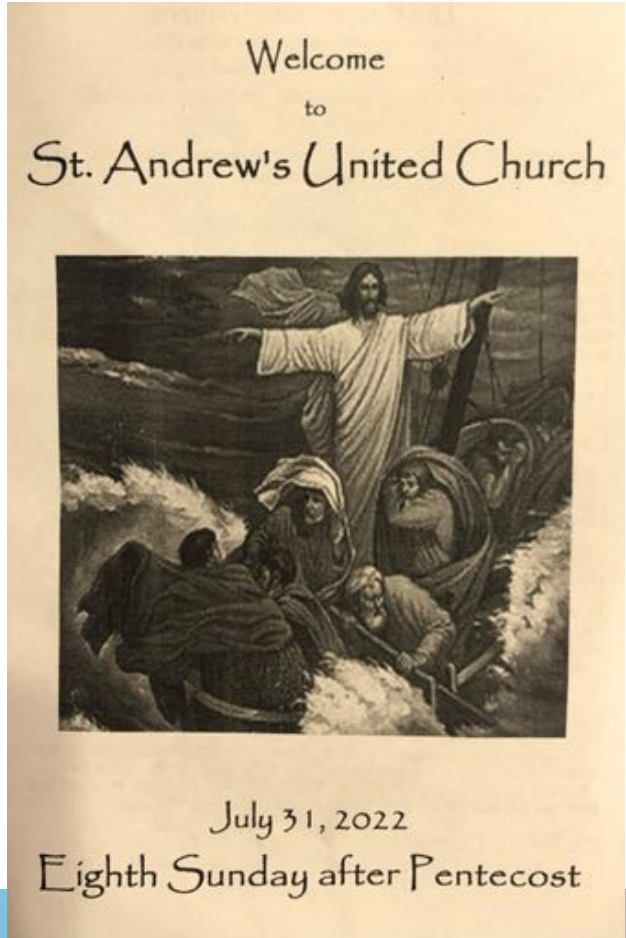

Would everyone who took the 'food safe course' please photocopy your certificate when you receive it and give me the copy so that I can send it off to public health.

It's one of the requirements of our application for a 'temporary' license for IPE.

Thank you all for taking the course and you can photocopy at the church and just leave it with Tiffany or just leave it on the desk in the lounge. I drop in at least once/week.

Suzanne

St. Andrew's hosted another wonderful worship service July 31. Rev. Hati spoke, in particular, of the role of Peace in our world and souls .

The Community Gathers
 Before the service, meditate and speak to God
 During the service, let God speak to you.
 After the service, talk to each other and the wider community.

KEYS

Order of Worship

Acknowledgement of Territory and Reconciliation
 As we gather today, we recognize that the first peoples lived here for countless generations before we did. We acknowledge that we are on the unceded traditional lands of the Splat'sin First Nation, and we celebrate their faithful stewardship.

*Invitation to Worship (please read the bold text aloud)
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
